COUNTY'S OFFICE OF RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT HOSTS OPEN HOUSE Public Invited to Learn About Free Grant Research Service

The County of San Diego Office of Resource Development is hosting an open house on Wednesday, June 28, 2006 from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. to educate the public about free grant research service.

According to Teresa Brownyard, Director of the Office of Resource Development, this service is a valuable resource to the many local nonprofit organizations and community based groups. "We'd like to meet folks from local nonprofit groups and learn more about their funding needs to fine tune our research," Brownyard said.

The Office of Resource Development boasts a computer workstation that is linked to several grant locator services, which is available for the public to use by appointment. The public is invited to attend the open house to learn more about this free service, how to register, utilize the computer resource and provide feedback about their organization's funding needs.

The Office of Resource Development open house will be held June 28 between 9:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. at 1700 Pacific Highway, Room 309. For additional information, or to become a part the Office of Resource Development's grant noticing network, please call 619-685-2292 or visit <http://www.sdcounty.ca.gov/ORD>.
